

BURRO WASH-EAST MOTORIZED TRAIL

Views of the Henry Mountains and Domes of Capitol Reef

LOCATION

The staging area is 1.2 miles off Notom Rd. in between Hwy 24 and Burr Trail Rd.

TRAIL TYPE

Open to any motorized travel. The purple rd is ATV, and the orange trail ADVANCED.

DISTANCE

This trail is about 5 miles one way.

DIFFICULTY

Moderate. The orange trail is part of the designated route, but most of the time it is washed out. Only for the dedicated and intense riders.

TRAIL DESCRIPTION

The whole trail is B class county graded and maintained road. The surface type is bennonite clay and sand.

EQUIPMENT

Any motorized vehicle, unless in an otherwise marked area.

ENVIRONMENT

This is an all-season trail, as long as the roads are not wet or covered in snow.

SAFETY

You must stay on the road while riding. You will be fined if you ride in the wilderness area.

TAKE IN THE VIEWS.

This trail will take you to views that are unique to this part of Utah. Without the usual red rock that southern Utah has been patched with, this beautiful white rock adds a unique and welcomed diversity to the area. This is definitely an area that you will want to see.

GET A CLOSER LOOK.

Venture east from Notom Road into the rough foothills and mesas on the northwest edge of the Henry Mountains. This trail is a mix of easy and somewhat challenging terrain with options to visit unique attractions along the way. Views of the Henry Mountains, and the eastern edge of Capitol Reef.

DO IT AT YOUR OWN PACE.

Trail tip: There is wilderness preservation area surrounding this trail so be aware of where you are going. The areas will be marked.
