DISTANCE

1,600 ft

ELEVATION GAIN

Easy

DIFFICULTY

2-4 hrs

EST. TIME

LOCATION

Access via Angel Point West/East trailheads or the Sandslide Road North/South staging areas.

TRAIL TYPE

All-season, maintained sand and red dirt roads suitable for most users.

TRAIL DESCRIPTION

The trail delivers sweeping views into multiple canyons and valleys with the Henry Mountains visible in the distance across a long, mostly flat route.

DIFFICULTY NOTES

Maintained road surfaces and all-season accessibility keep the technical difficulty low despite the mileage.

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

Dogs allowed, No fees. Pack out everything you pack in. Flash floods can hit canyons fast from distant storms — check the forecast first.

EQUIPMENT

Physical map and first aid kit recommended (cell service unreliable).

COORDINATES

38.30639, -110.54944 (Trailhead)

Coordinates are a navigation aid — conditions change, so always verify current road and trail status before you go.

SAFETY

Check weather forecasts, carry a physical map, and notify someone of your route and return time since cell service is unreliable.

TRAIL TIP

This one's rideable nearly any time of year — a solid pick when other trails are too wet or snowed in.
